The story is set in New York City during the American Revolution and told by a 13-year-old enslaved African American girl, Isabel.

Chains (Seeds of America, #1) by Laurie Halse Anderson

Chains is the first novel in the Seeds of America trilogy, a series of historical novels that follows the story of thirteen- year- old Isabel, an African American slave fighting for her and her younger sister's freedom while the Revolutionary War is occurring. The story sets in New York in the years 1776 to 1777, when slavery was legal and common in the colonies. Though the novel is fictional, the events in the story are actual events that occurred back then in the colonies. Some examples of the
