About the 2020 Tax Commission In 2012, the TaxPayers' Alliance established the 2020 Tax Commission with the Institute of Directors, Europe's largest membership organisation for business leaders, in order to consider ways in which the tax system could be simplified and the pressure on households and businesses reduced.

About the 2020 Tax Commission – TaxPayers' Alliance

Earlier this month, the 2020 Tax Commission published a report promoting replacement of our current income tax system, which has varying rates of tax (from 20% to 50%) and National Insurance (typically 12% and 2%), with a simpler system which has a single flat tax at a rate of 30%. They also recommended raising the personal allowance (the amount you can earn tax-free) to £10,000 per year, from its current £8,105.

Jan 11 2011. The TaxPayers' Alliance has established the 2020 Tax Commission with the Institute of Directors. Families and businesses in the UK are taxed far too much and the system is far too complicated. The work of this Commission will look at ways to address these problems. The Chancellor has called our tax system a "spaghetti-bowl" and the work of the 2020 Tax Commission will feed into the debate on how to simplify it.
