Travestimento scenico e traduzione sono i temi impegnativi affrontati in questo saggio (Premio L'Autore 2013). Per primo, viene analizzata la figura del “boy actor”, attore del teatro inglese pre e post Rinascimento, “travestito da donna” per necessità. Passeranno poi in rassegna figure teatrali, “performer”, attori e cantanti che nei secoli hanno usato il travestimento, anche come arma per palesare la propria identità sessuale. Ai momenti ritenuti più importanti degli studi sulla traduzione, viene dedicata la seconda parte del saggio che si conclude con una traduzione della canzone “Sweet transvestite”, trait d'union con l'argomento della prima parte.

Bold and inventive in style, City of Night is the groundbreaking 1960s novel about male prostitution. Rechy is unflinching in his portrayal of one hustling 'youngman' and his search for self-knowledge among the other denizens of his neon-lit world. As the narrator moves from Texas to Times Square and then on to the French Quarter of New Orleans, Rechy delivers a portrait of the edges of America that has lost none of its power. On his travels, the nameless narrator meets a collection of unforgettable characters, from vice cops

Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas. These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a "filler" in a picture show that would include a cartoon, a newsreel, possibly a serial and a short before launching into the feature film. Shorts could tackle any topic of interest: an unusual travelogue, a comedy, musical revues, sports, nature or popular vaudeville acts. With the advent of sound-on-film in the mid-to-late 1920s, makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films, using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies. After the Second World War, and the rising popularity of television, short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s. This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s.
