Overall "The Shadow Prison" is quite reminiscent of Tolkien's "Return of the King" with the added bonus of flying cities, mutant knights and time bending swords. My only issue with the book, and hell with the series as a whole, is the immortal hero syndrome, given the scale and intensity of the battles the protagonists' survival rates are quite astonishing, especially in this final book

Frostborn is really considered book number one as he marked the book "Frostborn: The First Question" as book number 0.5. The reason for this is because the book should be considered as an introduction to the world of Frostborn, learn more about the characters he crafted in this world and then you can move on to the first book titled "Frostborn: The Gray Knight".
