Stay the Night - Forestry and Land Scotland

The forest is used by Shakespeare for clandestine activities - often secret marriages or plots to switch identities. It is also often a place of sanctuary. In ' A Midsummer Night's Dream ' the woodland is used as a setting for the escapism of the subplot with the fairies Titania and Oberon, as well as the comic play within the play acted by the ' Mechanicals ' .

“In The Forest Of The Night” is a bold exploration of uncharted territory, and I’m glad Doctor Who tried out such a bold experiment in the run-up to the big finale. Its willingness to verge far afield from the show’s normal genre reveals one of the great paradoxes that makes the show so perversely compelling: There are more than a few moments tonight in which the episode is like nothing ...
