Leonard Ravenhill (June 18, 1907 – November 27, 1994) was an English Christian evangelist and author who focused on the subjects of prayer and revival. He is best known for challenging western evangelicalism (through his books and sermons) to compare itself to the early Christian Church as chronicled in the Book of Acts. His most notable book is Why Revival Tarries which has sold over a ...

Ravenhill had a passion for prayer and revival as evidenced in this book. In chapter six "Revival Tarries - Because", he gets down to the nitty-gritty listing several "because's", such as the cheapening of the gospel and the lack of urgency and travail in prayer. Some folks think it's too late for revival but Ravenhill would disagree.

Leonard Ravenhill's passion for and desire of revival is clearly seen throughout his work. His call for preachers and the church to see God bring revival is unmistakable. If there is any negative aspects of his book it would be almost a sole emphasis on preachers to desire and plead for revival instead of all believers. Also there were par

Ravenhill wrote many books but Why Revival Tarries is considered his best and has been an international best-seller for over 40 years. Ravenhill's writing is weighty with a gravitas that modern Christian writers lack. He is eminently quotable, each sentence of this book feels as if it were placed on a scale before being written down.
