55 Religious Birthday Wishes - Happy Birthday Blessings

It's a good day to celebrate God's blessings. I have some good news to share today. But before I do, after last week's post, I realized we don't share our good news and God's blessings in our lives as much as we could. We all have much to be thankful for, and sometimes those things can get buried under the yuck of life.

Let the car whiz around the track a few times and explain to kids that the Bible describes our Christian life as a race. We must follow God's track to get the prize at the end, but God also gives us blessings along the way. Next, set up a detour and lead the car off the track in the wrong direction. Explain that when we derail or take our own ...

Hey! Let's celebrate you! You are special, you are unique, and inside of you are talents and gifts that are needed on this Earth. You were created to fulfill a special plan that God preplanned before you were born. Just think, if Michael Jackson, Whitney Houston, Picasso, and da Vinci never discovered their gifts and talents, we would have missed out big time. Thank God first for giving those gifts and talents. Whatever gifts and talents are in us were meant to be given away to bless others. Something as simple as a smile or a word of encouragement given can bless the world. Let's Celebrate You will give you insight into seeing and learning to appreciate your uniqueness without it you will never allow what God has put in you to flow out of you. Let's Celebrate You will help you see how important it is to kick out discouragement; it is a dream killer. Jesus said the kingdom of God has suffered violence and the violent take it by force. For your dreams to be fulfilled, you will have to be violent against discouragement. It may feel like all the forces of hell are coming against you just because you are trying to give birth to your dream. Every great dream has had to overcome great opposition and discouragement to win.

A LONE JOURNEY The book is based on a journey of an individual and it answers all the questions which human beings have been asking for. For generations and generations and it brings us back to our Creator and confi rms the truth about ALL Religions and unites them to become one with each again.

Ezekiel 31:7 "Thus it was beautiful in greatness And in the length of it branches, Because its roots reached to abundant waters." Romans 11:13 "For if the first fruit is holy, the lump Is also holy; and if the root is holy, so Are the branches." Ephesians 3:17 "that Christ my dwell in your hearts through Faith; that you, being Rooted and grounded in love." By the Grace of God I have recently, with the passing of my father, been able to realize and understand my roots through the tribe of Aaron. As a result of this blessing I have been inspired by my church and family to write this devotional of Communion Messages. Hopefully, this devotional will be a blessing to anyone that can use it for Communion in Church, or at home. With this blessing I sign my name; Bruce Allyn Cohen

Let's Celebrate is a feast for the eyes as well as the spirit. The vibrant artwork wonderfully compliments thoughtful poems, written to encourage readers and draw them closer to the heart of God. The light in the window beckons to me. It speaks of warmth and love that the world may see. God is in this house and His blessings rest on thee. These modern-day psalms of praise and worship are perfect for reminding us that God is in control and He has a good plan for our lives. The demands on our busy days are many, but a few delightful moments spent reading Let's Celebrate can help us to slow down, praise our Lord, and draw closer to the Father heart of God. And when we continue to draw closer to God, He will change our thoughts and hearts and show us the way to celebrate all of life. Virginia Rudolph is married and has three grown sons, two daughters-in-law, and one grandson. A graduate of the University of Illinois in Art Education, Virginia has been an artist for a greeting card company in Chicago and an art teacher in the public schools. Through her art and poetry Virginia hopes to encourage people to realize God has a plan for their lives and that plan is good-better than anything they can imagine!

This book of graces and reflections integrates thankfulness with a burning passion for justice, both of which are central to our relationship with a bountiful provider God, with the whole creation, with each other and with our brothers and sisters throughout the world who, because of greed and injustice, will not receive their daily bread. This work invites us to pray and recommit ourselves to act for justice each time we join in the simple sharing of a meal. It is also very much a celebration - of food, of diversity, of community and sharing, of creator and creation. The graces in this book are from a wide range of contributors - from Iona Community members, associates and friends, from other religious communities and houses of welcome, from humanitarian organisations, from different faiths and traditions.
