The "Mark of the Lion" series was wonderfully written. The author, Francine Rivers, has done her homework, and writes about the tyranny of Rome (about 200 AD) in a way that transports you back to that era. Indeed, to crack the cover of these books and begin reading is very like discovering a time-machine and traveling back in time.

The Mark of the Guard is a special mark given to members of the Lion Guard. It is in the shape of a roaring lion 's head. Each member's mark changes its color to match their own pelt. It is given to them by the leader placing their paw over their left shoulder. It seems to be well known as a representation, that the animal that it is bestowed upon, is a member of the Guard.
