Sunday, October 7. One of the most challenging things for a (new) teacher is planning and pacing the curriculum. After all, there are so many different standards to teach, practice, and assess, and so little time. Whether you teach middle school ELA or high school English at a school where you have a strict pacing guide or if you teach at a school where you have complete freedom in your planning, planning for year-long ELS instruction is tough.

These pacing guides are to serve as a guide to what you student is learning in the classroom at any point throughout the year. The pacing guides for Grade K-8 have been revised to align with the new Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for English language arts and math. Those that have been aligned to CCSS are in a "draft" format this academic year so our teachers and staff can add features, as well as work out any bugs that are associated with implementing the new pacing guides to Common Core.
