Given the rarity of black luxin drafters the Blinding Knife is used to transfer splitting/balancing to full spectrum polychromes when a black drafter isn't available. As others have pointed out, the mechanics are inconsistent - different spectra being transerred etc. but that may be simply down to modes of proper use we don't currently know.

Blinding Knife is brilliantly written and the characterisation is excellent as per usual. The series is a distinctly different fantasy series to any other and he creates a whole new range magic type with associated rules. It's a very long book so those that enjoy reading will regard it as excellent value.
