Engagement Range codifies the concept of “within 1? of the enemy” into a single term for reuse across the rules, and also adds a new feature – in 9th edition it now has a vertical component (5?) allowing for fights across different elevations in ruins, over crates or around barrels. No longer is a model on a 1.1” tall plinth immune to combat... ANKLES are back on the menu!

In 40K's 8th edition, the core rules for the game are only 8 pages in length. Those core rules are also available for free. However, the free rules only contain the “basic” rules. It's enough to get you playing the game though.

While ship-based combat has been well fleshed-out in Horus Heresy with the Zone Mortalis rules, we've had little inclination of anything similar in 8th edition 40k, with nothing in the rulebook to suggest we'd even see it in the future. So, I set out to fix that, adapting the Zone Mortalis rules to the 8th edition framework.

Deathwatch is a roleplaying game set in the Warhammer 40,000 universe, where you take on the role of a member of the Adeptus Astartes - the devout, bio-engineered super-soldiers also known as Space Marines. Only the most exceptional candidates from the fighting forces of the Adeptus Astartes are invited to join the Deathwatch, and take on a new oath to safeguard the Imperium from the darkest of threats. United in this newly forged brotherhood, all Deathwatch Marines must learn to put aside their differences and work together to succeed in the most extraordinary operations - whether facing the threat of total annihilation when confronted by implacable alien foes, or fighting against the foul daemon menace that crawls forth hungrily from beyond the Warp. Deathwatch offers a brand-new roleplaying experience by focusing on elite, special-missions style action at the furthest fringes of Imperial space, involving some of the greatest heroes and deadliest opponents the Warhammer 40,000 universe has to offer!

The returned primarch Roboute Guilliman strives to save the Imperium from an era of death and darkness. Fell times have come to the galaxy. Cadia has fallen, destroyed by the onslaught of Chaos. A Great Rift in the warp has opened and from its depths have spewed daemons and the horrors of Old Night. But all hope is not lost... A hero, long absent, has returned and with him comes the wrath of the Ultramarines reborn. Roboute Guilliman, the last of the loyal primarchs, has arisen from millennia in stasis to lead the Imperium out of darkness on a crusade the likes of which has not been seen since the fabled days of the Emperor. But never before have the forces of Ruin amassed in such numbers, and nowhere is safe from despoliation. From the dreaded Scourge Stars come the hordes of the Plaguefather, Lord Nurgle, and their pustulent eye is fixed on the Ultramarines home world of Macragge. As the Indomitas Crusade draws to an end, Guilliman and his army of Primaris Space Marines race to Ultramar and a confrontation with the Death Guard.
